California Supreme Court is the highest state court that hears death penalty cases on appeal from the Superior Courts and may review decisions of the Courts of Appeal, the state's intermediate appellate courts. Has original jurisdiction to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, prohibition and certiorari.

Courts of Appeal have jurisdiction over all appeals from superior courts except death penalty cases.

Superior Courts are in each of the 58 county seats and have original jurisdiction in civil cases involving more than $25,000, probate, domestic relations, juvenile, felony and some tax and misdemeanor cases as well as appeals from municipal and justice courts.

Municipal Courts are located in judicial districts with a population of more than 40,000 and have jurisdiction over civil cases involving $25,000 or less and misdemeanors, except juveniles.

Justice Courts are located in judicial districts with a population of more than 40,000 or less and have jurisdiction over civil cases involving $25,000 or less and misdemeanors, except juveniles.

Judicial Council

Function is to improve the administration of justice by surveying judicial business, making recommendation to the Governor, Legislature and courts, and adopting rules of court administration, practice and procedure. Chief Justice, as chairperson of the council, seeks to expedite judicial business and to equalize the work of judges, and may assign judges to other courts.
